

LONG-TERM PERFORMANCE & DURABILITY STATEMENT

NOVERA SYSTEM

Declaration of Long-Term Performance

NOVERA Technologies s.r.o. declares that performance characteristics of the NOVERA SYSTEM are based on:

- long-term laboratory testing;
- field measurements on real buildings;
- accelerated ageing tests;
- continuous research and development.

Declared performance values are designed to remain stable over the expected service life of the products when applied and maintained in accordance with manufacturer instructions.

The system is developed for long-term use in demanding climatic and operational conditions.
